- 6. Accidents resulting from ignorance or clumsiness in the handling of weapons will result in the severe punishment of unit commanders and chiefs of Folit/Kultur sections.
- Attendance of HVA units at the Weltjugendtreffen in August 1951 will be determined on the basis of competitive tests within the Objekte.
- 8. The training of HVA officers will lay marticular stress upon turning out staff officers and srecialists.
- 9. A determined battle will be wased against desertions, absences without leave, and unauthorized extension of leaves. The most important task to be accomplished through political work is the stabilization of discipline. Unit commanders will make a systematic and careful study of their subordinates. Preventive measures will be taken against disciplinary violations and "special occurrences" (desertions, etc.). Special occurrences will be carefully investigated. Heasures decided upon as a result of that study will be executed to the letter.
- The following ranking officers of the HVA have been censured for indecision and lack of perseverance in the execution of orders, for poor discipline, and for political weakness (schwache parteipolitische Arbeit): Cheinfinspekteur (Bufolf?)

  Barmler and Inspekteur Wagner.
